REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b), I conducted a plea hearing in this case on January 23, 2019. At the hearing, defendant moved to withdraw his not guilty plea to Count Eleven of the eleven-count Indictment and entered a plea of guilty to Count Eleven of the Indictment, in exchange for the undertakings made by the government in the written plea agreement. On the basis of the record made at the hearing, I find the defendant is fully capable and competent to enter an informed plea; the plea is made knowingly and with full understanding of each of the rights waived by defendant; the plea is made voluntarily and free from any force, threats, or promises, apart from the promises in the plea agreement; the defendant understands the nature of the charge and penalties provided by law; and the plea has a sufficient basis in fact.

Therefore, I RECOMMEND defendant's motion to withdraw his not guilty plea to Count Eleven of the Indictment be granted, his plea of guilty to Count Eleven of the Indictment be accepted, the Court adjudicate defendant guilty of the charges set forth in Count Eleven of the Indictment, and a decision on whether to accept the plea agreement be deferred until sentencing. The charge to which defendant is pleading guilty does not mandate detention under Title 18 U.S.C. § 3143(a)(2). The government did not oppose Defendant remaining released on bond with conditions of release until sentencing in this matter [Docs. 7 & 8]. I further RECOMMEND

Defendant remain on bond until sentencing in this matter. Acceptance of the plea, adjudication of guilt, acceptance of the plea agreement, and imposition of sentence are specifically reserved for the district judge.
